Equity Market Outlook

As of September 2017, JCI moved up 0.63% MoM to 5,900.85. The overall performance of JCI is supported from local fund despite net outflow from foreign investors as well as earnings season for 3Q17. Meanwhile, the US stock market moved positive (S&P 500 +1.93% MoM) to 2,519.36. The strengthening was underpinned by positive sentiment from the possibility of tax cut that would help US economic growth as well as declining trend from USD.
